Chapter 91 - Grandsons

"Yes, it should be almost done. "If you're like this, first tell Mom what's going on with you?" He Fen urgently wanted to know the details regarding his son and that "daughter-in-law". Since she couldn't wait for Su Wan Bo to arrive, she asked first.

"Mom, Qingyun is a good woman. Although her family is not as good as ours, but I really like her, so I hope you can accept it." Su Qi Ze said.

"We don't accept it." Just as he said that, Su Wan Bo walked out from the bathroom in his pajamas. His face was dark and filled with displeasure.

Su Qi Ze turned his head to look at his own father, only to see that his hair was still dripping with water.

"Don't think that I don't know what you are thinking. When you saw Su Chen Hao getting married and you getting married, did you think that just by bringing back your wife, your grandfather would be able to treat you like he treated Chen Hao?" Su Wan Bo glared at his son with a face full of anger. One must know that his sudden attack today had caused him to lose a lot of face in front of the Old Master and his wife.

They all asked him about his daughter-in-law, but he couldn't even say her name. In the end, he was lectured by the old man, saying that he didn't care about his son.

He had been wrongly accused.

He Fen took a towel and wiped his hair, and said: "Old master has never liked our second room, it's not like you don't know it. He used to like Eldest Brother, but what about him? Is it useful? His eldest brother did not run away with the other women and even lost his life because of this. As for her elder sister-in-law, she had been living a happy life on the surface and the old man had given her face. But who didn't know that she had been immersed in the past and hadn't come out, causing the relationship between them to be so stiff? In my opinion, it would be better if our family was amiable. "

"What do you know?" Su Wan Bo glared at his wife, and said, "Who is in charge of the Royal Group now? It's him, Su Chen Hao! This was the advantage of the old tutor liking him. Although the concubine was discordant, Su Chen Hao married the only successor to the Hauptverwaltungsgebäude. Our family was quite harmonious, but what happened in the end? What woman did your son bring you back? "

He Fen was completely speechless, she just shut her mouth and could not be bothered to argue with him. In any case, she knew that her son had many ways to deal with him.

"Stinky brat, let me ask you, what is the origin of that woman? "I'm warning you, don't try to lie to me. I'll get someone to investigate." Su Wan Bo glared at his son fiercely and asked.

Su Qi Ze saw that he had finished recounting the situation, and then said slowly: "She is just an ordinary person, she is not some famous woman, you guys don't need to think about her."

"You ..." Hearing that, Su Wan Bo stared at him angrily, "Are you going to anger this daddy to death? I don't care, just deal with her tomorrow, our Su Family doesn't want such a daughter-in-law. "

"Oh? "Is that so?" Su Qi Ze was not in a rush, he only raised his eyebrow and looked at his mother, "Mom, you don't need it too?"

This time, He Fen was on the same side as her husband.

After all, she was born into a famous family and had high requirements for her daughter-in-law.

"Qi Ze, you are the second young master of Su Family, you should be clear that for families like ours, it is important to be the match of authority." He didn't want to hurt her son's heart too much, so she only advised him in a euphemistic manner.

"Alright, you two don't accept this wife. It looks like you two don't want the child in her womb either. I'll get her divorce papers tomorrow and go back where she came from. " Su Qi Ze said as he turned to leave.

After Su Wan Bo and his wife heard this, their expressions changed.

He Fen was the first to react and called out to him, "Wait a moment, what did you say just now? The child in her womb? "

"It's not important. In any case, you guys don't want this daughter-in-law anymore, why do you care about the child in her stomach?" Su Qi Ze said casually.

"Brat, stop right there!" Su Wan Bo regained his senses at this time, and shouted loudly, "Are you speaking the truth? She has your seed in her stomach? "

"If you don't believe me, you can call the doctor."

Su Wan Bo was shocked when he heard this reply, "How is this possible? The doctor didn't say you had a heart attack, you couldn't get too excited, you couldn't get too excited... "

"Yeah, I thought I couldn't, but the truth is, aren't I standing in front of you now?" So, do you want this grandson or not? I'll send her away tomorrow if you don't. " Su Qi Ze began to threaten them.

"Yes, of course." He Fen was afraid that he would send her away, hence she quickly replied. As she spoke, she even pushed Su Wan Bo a little, allowing him to express his opinion.

Su Wan Bo's anger had not dissipated, but knowing that he had a grandson, he was somewhat happy, but he did not want to show it, so he only rough said, "Enough, I've been busy for a whole day and am about to die. If there's anything, we can talk about it tomorrow."

"Then I won't disturb your rest any longer." Su Qi Ze knew that his parents had passed.

After saying good night, he left the bedroom and went to the study.

The second floor of the villa had two study rooms, one near the main bedroom that Su Wan Bo was using.

There was also a room that was close to Su Qi Ze's bedroom, the place where he normally handled the company's official business.

Because of his poor health, he had been on the company's tracks less and less of the time. Most of the time, he would stay in the study room to remotely direct his subordinates to do their work.

Because of this, other than the housekeeper who went in to clean, the rest of the servants were not allowed in his study.

It was already half past one in the morning.

Su Qi Ze pushed open the door to the study room and walked in.

He opened it, edited a text message, and sent it to a number that did not have a name: "I have already completed the task you have instructed me to do. I hope that what you have promised me can be done."

Early the next morning, Luo Qing Yun was awakened by a knock on the door.

He opened his eyes and was about to get up to open the door when he saw the door of the small bedroom inside open. Su Qi Ze walked out from inside in her pajamas.

"Lie down. I'll open the door." Seeing that she had woken up, Su Qi Ze exhorted her and walked towards the door.

Luo Qing Yun knew that they were probably afraid that someone would find out that they were not sleeping in the same bed, so she followed her instructions.

Opening the door, Su Qi Ze yawned, then saw the servant Sister-in-Law standing at the door, "Young Master, good morning."

"What's the matter this early?" Su Qi Ze glanced at Sister-in-Law and asked.

Sister-in-Law glanced at the room and laughed, "It's like this, Madam said that she is going to the mansion to give tea to the elders, so she told me to wake Young Master and Young Mistress up in advance so that she could make some preparations."

"So it's like that. I understand. You go down first. We'll be right down." After Su Qi Ze finished speaking, without waiting for Sister-in-Law to say anything, he immediately closed the door.

Luo Qing Yun heard their conversation from inside the room and got off the bed.

"Don't worry, I'm just going to the mansion to make tea." Su Qi Ze saw that she was in a defensive stance and laughed.

"I can..." Not going? " Luo Qing Yun asked carefully.

Going to the big house meant going to see Su Chen Hao. How could she not be nervous?

Su Qi Ze reached out to support her shoulders, gently sighed, and comforted her: "I know what you're worried about, don't be afraid, I'll take care of it."

Luo Qing Yun was still a little uneasy in her heart, but in her heart, she was clear that she could not avoid today's meeting no matter what.

After all, there was still a long way to go. Even if she avoided today, what about tomorrow? What about the day after tomorrow?

Su Qi Ze's relationship with his cousin had already determined that as long as she was Su Family's daughter-in-law one day, it would be impossible for her to avoid Su Chen Hao.

Since he would have to face it sooner or later, he might as well get used to it as soon as possible.

After washing up, he went downstairs with Su Qi Ze.

Su Wan Bo and his wife had already been sitting in the dining hall for a while.

Because of the child in Luo Qing Yun's womb, the two of them were forced to accept her as their daughter-in-law.

But in the end, she was still a part of their family background, so Su Wan Bo did not like her.

Luo Qing Yun stood beside Su Qi Ze, and when the two of them entered the dining hall, they saw Su Wan Bo reading a newspaper with his head lowered, and He Fen sitting on a chair like a dignified lady.

"Dad, Mom, good morning." Su Qi Ze walked to the dining table and greeted them.

Su Wan Bo did not even raise his head, and only coldly snorted.

He Fen's gaze continued to size up Luo Qing Yun, and her tone was somewhat unhappy, "Morning? You don't want to know what time it is. What day is it today? We still have to get to the mansion. If we're late, someone will tell us. "

Although she was saying this towards Su Qi Ze, Luo Qing Yun knew, she was blaming herself.

Lowering her head, she explained to them with an apologetic expression, "Uncle, Aunt, I'm sorry, it's all my fault. I was late, so I came downstairs late."

"Miss Lowe right?" He Fen saw that she had good eyesight and understood what she was saying, so she raised his eyebrows slightly with a proud look on her face, and said: "We came back late last night, so we didn't have time to chat with you. I heard from Qi Ze that you two went to get a marriage certificate behind our backs? "

Luo Qing Yun faintly understood the reproach in her tone. She opened her mouth to explain, but then heard Su Qi Ze say from the side, "Regarding this question, didn't I already mention it yesterday? I didn't tell you guys because I wanted to give you two elders a surprise ... "

"Shut up, I'm talking to Miss Lowe." He Fen didn't like his son to protect his new daughter-in-law like this, so he couldn't help but shout.

"Aunty, you can call me Qingyun." When Qi Ze and I received the certificate, we were indeed in the wrong if we didn't inform the two elders beforehand. According to logic, before this, I should have already come to visit you two. It's just that Qi Ze said that he wanted to give you two a pleasant surprise, that's why ... " When Luo Qing Yun said this, she looked at Su Qi Ze apologetically.

Sorry, you can only take the blame for this pot.

Otherwise, she really didn't know how to explain their abnormal behavior.

Seeing that she had admitted her wrongs sincerely, He Fen was too lazy to investigate further.

His gaze swept across Luo Qing Yun's slightly drooping face, and he looked as fresh and enchanting as a green mountain after rain. It had to be said that she was indeed very beautiful, and it seemed that her son had an extraordinary taste.

But...

Chapter 92 - Accept her

"Qingyun, I didn't have the time to ask you some basic information last night. Now that you're a member of our Su Family, I have a duty to clarify some of your questions. I wonder what kind of business your family does? Who is your esteemed lord? "You know that people like us are always under the watch of countless pairs of eyes. If a daughter-in-law of unknown origin were to suddenly appear, I wouldn't be able to answer any of their questions."

He Fen's words were not tactful, it was so direct that it hurt one's self-esteem.

However, Luo Qing Yun knew in her heart that if this was the case, she would probably have to listen to it many more times, and it was from different people.

After all, what He Fen said was right, a rich and powerful family like the Su Family, with a daughter-in-law of unknown origin, would definitely cause others to stare at them closely.

Seeing that, Su Qi Ze was prepared to save him, but this time, Luo Qing Yun stopped him, and said: "Aunt, to hide it from you, my birth is indeed not a rich family, and, I am not even from a healthy family. My parents had divorced when my brother and I were very young, and although I was sentenced to my father's sentence, he spent most of his time outside gambling, not caring about us at all. I grew up with my brother, on a bit of living expenses that my mother gave me. "

"I know that with my family background and background, Qi Ze and I are completely incompatible. If I could choose, I would like to be born in a good family, with parents who love me. However, I have no right to choose my birth, so even if I feel that the heavens are unfair, I can only face it bravely.

However, luckily, the heavens allowed me to meet Qi Ze, giving me a chance to choose my life anew. I hope to seize this opportunity to become a member of this family. "It's not because of the wealth and glory of this family, but because this family can give people a sense of happiness."

Luo Qing Yun said with a calm expression, then looked up at Su Wan Bo, only to realize that his attention was no longer on the newspaper, but on himself.

"You're quite good at talking, but I don't know if what you're saying is true or false." He Fen was actually moved by her words, but as a mother-in-law, in order to protect her absolute authority, she couldn't pretend that she was satisfied so early.

"Whether it is true or not, you will understand after we get along." Luo Qing Yun said.

"Very good, since you said it like that, then as parents, we don't have the heart to beat up a couple. But I hope you understand that since you have entered our Su Family's door, you must follow our Su Family's rules. I know that your origin is not too good, so I don't understand many things. But you have to remember one thing, you are Qi Ze's wife now, so from now on, your responsibility is to take good care of him.

"Yes, I understand." Luo Qing Yun promised.

Seeing her straightforward answer, He Fen's expression became slightly friendlier: "Alright, the two of you don't stand around anymore. Quickly sit down and eat breakfast, then head over to the big house."

When Su Qi Ze heard this, he knew that Luo Qing Yun had passed the test set by her own mother. After all, they didn't look at the Buddhist Sangha, and for the sake of the child in her stomach, his mother would not make things too difficult for her.

In the blink of an eye, he realized that Su Wan Bo had gone to read the newspaper again. It was as if he wasn't listening to them just now.

"Why are you calling me?" Su Wan Bo frowned at him in displeasure, noticing that Su Qi Ze's eyes were shining straight at him, as though she was waiting for him to state his stance, she said impatiently, "Your mother told you to sit down, why are you still standing there?"

"You have always been the one in charge of our family. If mother were to speak, we would have to wait for your approval." Su Qi Ze said as he pulled out a chair for Luo Qing Yun and joked.

was still in the first few months of his pregnancy with the greatest reaction, so he could not eat too much.

After drinking a small bowl of porridge, he lost his appetite.

He Fen saw her put down the tableware, and immediately frowned: "What happened? Just this little bit? Was it something unpalatable? Butler, go to the kitchen and ask who prepared today's breakfast so that he won't have to come to work tomorrow. "

Hearing this, Luo Qing Yun immediately waved her hands, "Aunt, I'm sorry, the reason is not because of the chef, but because of me ... I'm not feeling very well right now, so I can't eat anything. "

"How can I not eat? You are not eating for yourself now, you are eating for the child in your womb. " After He Fen heard this, she turned to the butler and instructed, "Go ask the kitchen to fry an egg here, use less oil."

"Aunty, there's no need, really ..." "Ugh ..." As Luo Qing Yun said that, she felt nauseous in her heart, she immediately covered her mouth and retched.

Seeing that, Su Qi Ze immediately helped her up from her seat and went to the bathroom.

He Fen watched as they left, her heart filled with worry. "Why is my body so bad? I had such a huge pregnancy reaction, I can't eat much, and I'll never get malnourished."

"Take her to the hospital in the afternoon for a maternity checkup. Tell Bi Wei to find a better nutritionist to prepare a menu for her and ask the chef to prepare food for her according to that recipe." Su Wan Bo was still staring at the newspaper, but his tone of voice was a lot more relaxed.

That's right, Luo Qing Yun was's biological grandson in her stomach. There was a high possibility that this child would be his only grandson, so she must be careful in dealing with him.

Even if she did not like Luo Qing Yun, the child in her womb must not be treated unfairly.

"Got it." He Fen promised, then looked at his own husband, and warned him, "Don't keep looking at your child's face, don't you see that she's afraid of you?"

"It's better for her to be afraid. She was actually able to coax Qi Ze to retrieve the proof behind our backs. Do you think that it's easy for her?" Su Wan Bo looked at the direction of the bathroom and said with a cold face.

Hearing this, He Fen disagreed, in her heart, she believed that the reason for choosing a daughter-in-law was because she wanted to be smart enough to think of ways.

How could she gain a foothold in this upper-class society? In the future, he wouldn't be able to embarrass her even if he brought her out.

When Luo Qing Yun came out of the bathroom and went upstairs to change, the whole family went back in the car and headed towards the big house.

Su Family Mansion, after last night's excitement, had already calmed down.

The servants had cleaned up the inside and outside of the mansion, leaving only the big red lanterns and wooden carvings of the big red joyous characters still watching the celebration.

Su Chen Hao didn't sleep at all last night, so he stayed in the room for the night.

Seeing that he had woken up early, and that his mental state did not look too good, the Hu Bo was a little worried, "Young Master, you've suffered greatly in the past two days, your complexion does not look too good."

"I'm fine. Is grandpa up yet?" Su Chen Hao asked indifferently.

"Yes, Old Master is getting on in age and doesn't feel much. He wakes up every morning at dawn and is currently taking a walk in the garden with Young Mistress Yang." The Hu Bo spoke as he remembered something, he then turned to Su Chen Hao and said, "That's right, Eldest Young Master, last night before we went to bed, the Old Master mentioned that Second Young Master had obtained a certificate with a woman. Just now, hibiscus garden called and said that he wanted to bring his new wife to pay respects to the Old Master, take a look at this."

When Su Chen Hao heard this, his expression instantly became cold, and he asked: "Does grandfather know that they are coming over?"

"I don't know yet. I was just going to tell him. But, haven't you told me before? Second Master is not allowed to enter the mansion without your and Madam's permission, so I'll have to consult with you first. "

"Since he brought his new daughter-in-law here to serve his grandfather tea, there's naturally no reason for him to not let me in." "Tell someone to go down and make some preparations, and then send someone to inform Madam. As for Grandfather, I'll go speak with him." Su Chen Hao instructed, he then started to walk in the direction of the garden.

In the garden, Old Man Su held a watering can and was watering a bunch of roses in front of him.

This rose was planted by Old Man Su when he was still alive. In the beginning, it was only a small cluster, but over the years, with Old Man Su's meticulous care, it has grown to a large area.

The golden morning sunlight shone brightly on the crystal clear water droplets on the pink petals.

Su Chen Hao stood in the distance and watched for a while before he slowly lifted his leg and walked over.

"Why did you get up so early?" The lordmaster didn't turn his head, but he knew that it was him. Before he could speak, he asked.

"If you're awake, then you're awake." Su Chen Hao replied as he received the kettle from the old man, and watered the flowers.

At this moment, Sister Yang handed over a towel for the old man to wipe his hands before silently retreating to the side.

"Kid, you're really like me. When I was young, when I married your grandma, I woke up early the next morning." The old man thought back to when he was young and a smile appeared on his face. "However, I didn't come downstairs when I woke up. I hugged your grandma and looked left and right. I don't think I can see enough no matter how I look."

"There are too few people in this world who can have as much love as you and Grandma." Su Chen Hao said.

In fact, in his memories, he should have had one as well.

There were many mornings when he woke up from a dream and saw a woman sleeping soundly in his arms like a baby. No matter how he looked at her, he could not see enough.

But now?

Whose arms did the woman sleep in?

"Xi Wen is a good child. Treat her well, and from now on, your relationship will be the same as your grandmother's and mine." Old Man Su looked at the raging Rose in front of him and said meaningfully.

"Is that so?" Su Chen Hao laughed sarcastically. Huo Xi Wen was indeed a good girl, but between the two of them, there was only the relationship of brother and sister. It was impossible for there to be a relationship between a man and a woman.

"Are you not satisfied with the marriage that grandpa arranged for you?" Old Man Su saw that there was something wrong with his mood, so he asked.

"Even without my grandfather's arrangements, I would still have married Xi Wen. However, there's something I need to tell you. Xi Kaitian and I will move from the mansion to the villa and come over on time to greet you over the next weekend. I hope you can agree to this arrangement. "

"It's that urgent?" Old Man Su knew that Ye Zichen definitely wouldn't stay in the mansion, but he didn't think that Ye Zichen would move out so quickly.

Chapter 93 - Talking About Talismans

"I don't want to be a nuisance." When Su Chen Hao said this, a trace of pain flashed past his eyes.

Old Man Su knew who he was talking about and let out a long sigh. He lowered his head, "Your mother ..." Forget it, if you want to move, then move. However, Xi Wen will have to visit her frequently, I heard from Old Hu that your mother really likes Xi Wen. "

"I know, I will tell Xi Wen." Su Chen Hao said, his tone paused, he was about to say something about the Second House coming over when he saw Hu Bo walking over from the front, "Master, Eldest Young Master, Second Master and the others are here."

"What are they doing here?" Old Man Su frowned when he heard this. A hint of unhappiness flashed across his face, as if he didn't want to be disturbed on this peaceful morning.

By the time the grandfather and grandson pair returned to the hall, Huo Xi Wen had already woken up.

Eldest Wife, accompanied by the servant Sisters of Lotus, also went downstairs and sat on the sofa in the hall.

"Good morning, Grandpa." Seeing Old Man Sun, Huo Xi Wen immediately smiled sweetly and greeted him.

"Girl, did you sleep well last night?" Old Man Sun looked at his cute and well-behaved daughter-in-law with a caring tone.

"Yes, I was exhausted yesterday, so I slept soundly at night." Huo Xi Wen said straightforwardly.

Before she finished speaking, Second Master Su had already walked in with his son and daughter-in-law.

Every word that Huo Xi Wen had said earlier fell into Luo Qing Yun's ears, and for some reason, her originally completely calm heart was once again unavoidably wracked with pain.

Last night, it seemed, their wedding night had been a happy one.

"Dad, you got up early today." Su Wan Bo's face was full of smiles as he walked to Old Man Su's side and helped him sit on the sofa.

"Hmph, I get up early every day." Old Man Su glared at him, before shifting his gaze to Su Qi Ze and Luo Qing Yun, who were standing not too far away.

Su Qi Ze made contact with his gaze, and immediately pulled Luo Qing Yun forward, "Grandfather, good morning. Qingyun, you've already met last night, so I won't introduce you too much. The reason I came here today is to pay my respects to you. On the other hand, I wanted to bring her to offer you a cup of granddaughter-in-law's tea. "

After Old Man Sun heard this, his weathered gaze immediately fell on Luo Qing Yun, who was sitting next to him.

His eyes were sharp, carrying the absolute majesty of an elder. He did not smile at all.

"What a joke, you don't even have a wedding ceremony, and you just came over to pay respects to which son of a bitch's wife tea?" Our proper granddaughter-in-law has yet to offer tea. " Bai Ci Hui had already seen Luo Qing Yun at the wedding last night, and was angry because Su Qi Ze's sudden attack had stolen some of her son's limelight.

Now that they heard that they wanted to toast tea, and even said it before Su Chen Hao and Huo Xi Wen did, she felt even more unhappy.

He Fen was displeased when she heard that, and immediately lowered her face, "Sister-in-law, what do you mean by that? Could it be that our daughter-in-law isn't daddy's proper daughter-in-law? "

"If she's a proper daughter-in-law, why don't we have a wedding and announce it to the world? It's interesting to have someone come to their wedding to announce their good news. " Bai Ci Hui sarcastically replied.

He Fen clenched her teeth, feeling extremely unhappy in her heart, but she did not know how to refute her words.

"Aunty, Qingyun and I have received a certificate and we are a legal couple protected by the law. Qingyun doesn't like to be lively. I have always been low-key, and my health isn't too good, so I didn't plan on having too many people attend the wedding. That's why I took advantage of my brother's wedding yesterday to announce my good news. I thought that since we were both the grandchildren of the Su Family, and Big Brother's wedding was Su Family's wedding day, my wedding could be considered as icing on the cake.

As Su Qi Ze said that, he looked at Luo Qing Yun, who was beside her, and wrapped her arms around her waist, her face filled with deep emotions.

His words sounded extremely gentle, but anyone could hear that he was ridiculing Bai Ci Hui for being petty, not treating them as family.

Sure enough, after Bai Ci Hui heard this, her expression suddenly changed. Just as she was about to speak, she heard Old Man Sun cough loudly, "Alright, alright. Aren't we supposed to serve tea? Hurry, Old Hu, get someone to serve tea. "

"Yes, master." Butler Hu agreed and quickly ordered some people to serve tea while he walked behind Old Master Su and placed the four big red packets by his side.

Chen Hao, you are the big brother. You and Xi Wen, the two of you go first. With Old Man Su's orders, Su Chen Hao pulled Huo Xi Wen and knelt under the prayer mat that the servants had prepared beforehand. Carrying some tea, he started from Old Man Su and gave a round of tea to each of the elders present.

Then, it was Su Qi Ze's turn. The two of them gave the old man tea, and the old man gave them two red packets. He Fen looked at Bai Ci Hui and purposely raised her voice, "Father, I'm afraid you don't have enough red packets."

"Why is there less?" Old Man Su turned to ask her.

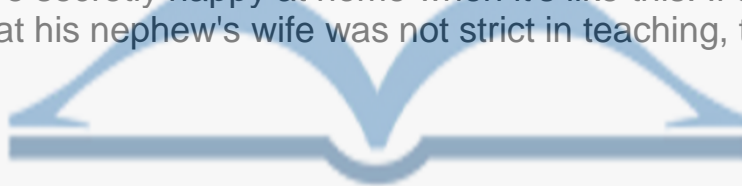

"Don't you know that in this Qingyun's stomach, she has your great-grandson? They are a family of three, shouldn't you add another red packet?"

Just as she finished her words, Luo Qing Yun felt a cold light fly over from behind her back. Like a dagger, it fiercely stabbed into her heart.

When Bai Ci Hui suddenly heard this news, she was angry and jealous at the same time.

The Second Branch actually had a grandson before her. After fighting for so many years, she couldn't afford to lose to her at a time like this.

After pondering for half a second, she laughed, "What do I think it is? So it's because I got pregnant before marriage." I'm not saying, Sister-in-law, it's fine as long as you're secretly happy at home when it's like this. If some busybody were to hear that his nephew's wife was not strict in teaching, that would not be good. "

After saying that, she turned to look at Luo Qing Yun, only to realize that she had always had her head lowered, looking weak and cowardly, and did not have much presence in the crowd, unlike a lady from a noble family, and so she asked, "Speaking of which family's daughter does your daughter-in-law belong to? If I'm not mistaken, my name is Luo, right? Does our Y City have a sect with the surname Luo? "

When she said these words, the pleased look on He Fen's face instantly faded, and her expression darkened.

When no one answered this question, the atmosphere suddenly turned cold.

Su Qi Ze wanted to open his mouth to refute a few words for Luo Qing Yun, but he also knew clearly in his heart that no matter how much the lotus blossomed from his tongue, Luo Qing Yun's birth was still her fatal weakness.

Bai Ci Hui couldn't be compared to his parents, although his parents would still mind Luo Qing Yun's birth background, but seeing the child, they would be willing to ignore those details.

But Bai Ci Hui was different, the words that she said were all for the sake of obtaining victory in this war of words, so she would not hesitate to pay any price, even if it meant exposing someone's weakness, she did not mind using it.

"Qingyun was born in a normal family, so she's not from a famous family. However, aunty doesn't know that what I like the most is her neighbouring temperament." Such a simple reply, Su Qi Ze's voice was very calm.

"So that's how it is, no wonder you became pregnant first. Since you were born into a small clan, it is rare for you to meet a young master like Second Young Master Su. Since you've met him, then you naturally have to try to catch up." Hearing this, Bai Ci Hui raised her eyebrows, and warned He Fen with a victorious tone: "Sister-in-law, don't say that I didn't warn you. Ever since ancient times, being the perfect match between a family and a family is very important. "Don't you guys want to bring anyone home just to be a grandpa or grandma."

At this time, the silent Su Wan Bo finally could not hold it in and spoke in a lazy voice: "Thank you for your concern sister-in-law, but you should keep these words to yourself for your daughter-in-law. After all, with Big Brother's example right there, he should keep a close eye on Chen Hao and not take his big brother's life. "Gene, this is something that can be inherited."

"What did you say?" Her husband's betrayal was Bai Ci Hui's greatest pain. In the past in Su Family, no one had dared to use this matter to provoke her. But today, Su Wan Bo had mercilessly attacked her.

Seeing that, Huo Xi Wen hurriedly went forward to support her mother-in-law, then turned and smiled at Old Man Su, "Grandfather, what Second Aunt said makes sense. With Qingyun having a child, you should give more red packets, since you're so rich, you shouldn't be lacking a red packet. Don't be too angry, hehe"

Then, he pretended not to understand anything and asked Bai Ci Hui, "Mother, I am Qi Ze and Qingyun's sister-in-law. Then, should I also drink some tea? Do you have any more red packets? Can you lend me a few? I don't have a dime on me right now. "

"Young Mistress, you really know how to coax Madam. You said that you don't have any money on you, but I saw that you took a few red packets from Master, Eldest Wife, Second Master and Second Wife. Do you want to keep them to buy us some delicious things to eat?"

"Shh, Hu Bo, is it easy for me to save up some money? "Why did you expose me?" Huo Xi Wen pretended to be angry and said.

At this time, Sisters of Lotus also laughed, "Eldest Young Mistress, I saw it too."

At this time, Huo Xi Wen let out a long sigh, and said unhappily, "With so many pairs of eyes staring at me, it seems like I shouldn't even think about getting this little treasury anymore."

After she made such a ruckus, the rest of the people also started laughing as Bai Ci Hui's anger had dissipated by a large amount. Right now, he was even more satisfied with this daughter-in-law who could act coquettishly and incite love.

After Su Qi Ze and his wife gave their tea, everyone went their separate ways, waiting for lunch.

Su Wan Bo and Su Qi Ze father and son followed the old man to the study room, while Huo Xi Wen accompanied Bai Ci Hui back to his room.

He Fen went to the Flower Hall to drink some tea while Luo Qing Yun accompanied him by her side.

After the servants served the tea, they all left. Because He Fen was still angry from being humiliated by Bai Ci Hui earlier, she turned and glared at him.

"As you can see, it's because you don't have a good background that everyone has to take as an example. A joyous occasion is not something that can be exposed in the eyes of others."

Luo Qing Yun knew that she still cared about how ordinary her background was, and how she wasn't worthy of Su Qi Ze at all. She didn't say anything for a moment, and only lowered her head, and stood at the side like a little wife.

Chapter 94 - The Bastard

Seeing her like that, He Fen became even angrier, "You can't say anything? It was like looking at a bottle gourd, look at Huo Xi Wen, she really knew how to talk, causing the old man to be extremely happy. I really don't know what point Qi Ze has taken a fancy to you. "

Luo Qing Yun knew clearly in her heart that there was no place for her to speak at all.

The most important reason why she wasn't liked by others was because she wasn't worthy!

Hearing that He Fen was comparing her to Huo Xi Wen, she suddenly thought of Su Chen Hao.

Probably, after some comparison, Su Chen Hao finally chose Huo Xi Wen.

Perhaps, a family background like hers could only be secretly raised by others, and become a character that could never be exposed to the light of day.

When he thought about the child in her stomach, he still couldn't bear to reprimand her any further. He only glanced at her and said, "Don't just stand there like an idiot, give me the tea."

Hearing that, Luo Qing Yun took two steps forward and picked up the cup of hot tea that the servant had placed on top of the mahogany tree. Most likely because she was thinking about something, he did not realize that the cup was hot.

She had just picked up the teacup when she felt a burning pain coming from her fingertip. Instantly, she reflexively let go of the cup and it fell to the ground.

The tea immediately spilled onto her feet, causing her to almost scream out in pain.

"What's going on? Even if I let you serve me a cup of tea, it wouldn't do. Seeing that, He Fen became even angrier.

Luo Qing Yun endured the pain, only apologizing before she turned and ran towards the bathroom outside the hall.

Now that the bathroom door was open, she rushed in without a word, ready to wash her hands and feet with cold water.

But right after entering the door, he saw Su Chen Hao's familiar figure washing his hands beside the washbasin.

Probably having heard her footsteps, he turned his head slightly and looked towards the door. His eyes that were as deep as the sea stared at her without blinking.

Luo Qing Yun also did not expect him to be here. Almost as if it was a conditioned reflex, she turned around and wanted to leave, but her hands and feet were in excruciating pain, giving her no time to look for another bathroom.

Gritting her teeth, she braced herself and walked forward. She rushed to the front of the washbasin and turned on the tap. Cold water poured directly onto her red-hot, swollen fingers.

But she had only been drenched for half a second, her small hand was suddenly grabbed by his big palm, and a sinister cold gaze looked down at her. Her thin lip opened her mouth, and her voice was like ice, smashing it into her heart, "Who let you in? Can't you see that I'm inside? "

Luo Qing Yun's hand was already injured, but now that she was pinched like this, the pain was even more unbearable.

"Who do you want to put on such a pitiful look for?"

In the past, he might have been moved by her looks, but now, every time he thought about how she had actually followed Su Qi Ze behind his back, a sense of disgust arose in his heart.

This woman was too good at using her weak appearance to deceive people. He wouldn't be fooled again.

"Please... "Let go." Her voice trembled as her eyebrows were pinched together by the intense pain from her fingertips. She bit her lower lip and endured the pain.

"Let go?" Su Chen Hao sneered. Not only did he not let her go, he even held her hand even tighter, "Looks like you still haven't figured out who is the boss between us."

As he spoke, he wrapped his other arm around her waist, instantly pressing her body against his. The slightly cold thin lip kissed her pale lips, and a familiar sweet sensation spread between their lips.

Luo Qing Yun was frightened, the bathroom door was not closed, and someone could come in at any time.

If anyone saw them acting like this, it would definitely set off a huge uproar.

She immediately tried to resist, but her scalded hand was gripped tightly by his palm, unable to move.

"Put..." "Let me go ..." She let out a few indistinct words, and then he kissed her so tightly that she couldn't breathe.

Is this man crazy?

She felt as if her heart was about to explode, and her back was drenched in cold sweat.

Although it was a kiss, they no longer had the sweet feeling of intimacy between lovers. All they had was the nervousness of walking on the edge of a blade.

Her heart was disturbed. She opened her mouth, and her white teeth bit into the soft skin of her lower lip. With just a little force, the taste of blood came out from her mouth.

Luo Qing Yun was in so much pain that her nerves tightened, and the tears in her eyes finally started to uncontrollably flow.

Bastard, this bastard!

She cried bitterly. He had already let go of her, and the distance between them had widened. However, his eyes were still cold and filled with contempt.

"Luo Qing Yun, do you still remember how much you owe me? "This is only interest. As for the rest, I will slowly repay them in the future." Looking at her crying face, he couldn't bear it anymore, but in the end his reason told him that this woman was too deceptive. He had been deceived once, and there wouldn't be a next time.

At this time, the sound of hurried footsteps came from outside the bathroom. A servant walked in with a scalding salve, "Second Young Madam, Second Wife said that you were scalded with boiling water ..."

Just as he entered, he saw Luo Qing Yun standing in front of the hand basin with her back facing the door, while Su Chen Hao was standing not far from her side. The servant was startled at first, but then greeted Su Chen Hao, "Eldest Young Master is here."

Su Chen Hao could not be bothered with the servant, but his gaze landed on the scalding plaster in her hands. He frowned and asked: "What are you holding?"

"Oh, this, the scalding salve, didn't Second Young Madam get scalded with boiling water just now? Second Wife told me to send the medicine over to take a look." The servant said as he walked to Luo Qing Yun's side.

Luo Qing Yun didn't want to be found crying, so she hurriedly raised her hand to wipe the tears off of her face. She lowered her head and continued to turn on the water, and used the cold water to wash her fingers.

Because she didn't immediately do the most effective treatment, blisters had already appeared on the areas where her fingers were scalded. Just a slight touch would cause a heart-wrenching pain.

"Second Young Madam, let me see your hand." The servant walked up and carefully held Luo Qing Yun's hand for a look. Then, she used some cotton to wipe off the water on her hand and applied a layer of scalding ointment on it.

Su Chen Hao stood at the side. Only now did he notice the injuries on her hand, and when he looked at Luo Qing Yun's little face, which was continuously enduring the pain, for some reason, his heart didn't feel any rush at all.

Wasn't he supposed to be happy to see her hurt?

"Aiya, the back of my feet is also bubbling. Second Young Madam, wait here for a moment, I will move a chair over for you to sit on and take off your shoes to apply medicine." At this time, the servant noticed that the back of her feet was also burned. He immediately turned around and was about to leave.

After taking a step, he turned to look at Su Chen Hao, "Eldest Young Master, can I trouble you to help me support the Second Young Madam. I'll be right there. "

Su Chen Hao did not say anything, and did not say anything bad either. He only looked coldly at Luo Qing Yun in front of his, and did not speak.

Servants knew their young master had a cold personality. Other than the Old Master and Housekeeper Hu, he usually didn't care about others.

He was not born, so he took it as a yes and hurried out of the bathroom.

Luo Qing Yun was wearing leather shoes, and at that time when the water was poured onto her feet, the water flowed into the shoes along the back of her feet, thus the place that was covered by the leather shoes were scalded, if she moved even a little, the skin on her feet would be in so much pain that it would be hard for her to breathe.

With Su Chen Hao at the side, she didn't want him to see his in pain, so he didn't look at her and only lowered his head to stare at the water faucet that wasn't closed. He softly said, "Mr. Su, I'm fine.

"Heh ..." Su Chen Hao sneered, but did not leave.

Luo Qing Yun thought, maybe he just wanted to see how miserable she looked like, so she raised her head to look at him, and spoke with a sarcastic tone: "If Big Brother is always by my side, and is seen by Eldest Sis and misunderstood, how should I explain this? "After all, my sister-in-law isn't someone who isn't pained by her father like me. Her mother wasn't born lowly and she wasn't born in love, so she isn't as easy to bully as me."

Su Chen Hao never thought that she would actually still have the mood to argue with him, and unknowingly frowned. But very quickly, he understood that she was intentionally provoking him.

"Don't worry, your eldest sister-in-law knows her place. She is very magnanimous. She definitely won't misunderstand." As he spoke, he even reached his hand up to her waist, making a deliberately warm gesture.

His touch caused Luo Qing Yun's face to instantly flush red, she stepped to the side, wanting to stay away from him, but the pricking pain on her feet caused her to inhale a breath of cold air, she did not dare move.

They just stood there in front of the sink. If he didn't leave, she wouldn't be able to leave.

Fortunately, the servant didn't leave for long before returning with a stool.

"Second Young Madam, please sit. I will take off your shoes for you." "Sit down," the servant said, helping her to a seat and squatting in front of her.

Seeing that he had nothing to do, Su Chen Hao raised his leg and was about to leave.

The servant remembered something, and said, "Young Master, can you help to hold Second Young Madam down? Her feet are scalded and swollen, it will be difficult for her to take off her shoes, I'm afraid that she will hurt a lot, if you move around randomly, you will injure her."

"No ..." "No need, I won't move." Luo Qing Yun rejected him without even thinking.

"No need?" Su Chen Hao originally did not want to help, but Luo Qing Yun's unhesitatingly refusing caused him to feel unhappy. His eyebrows raised up as she spoke to the servant: "A Tao, stand up."

Hearing that, A Tao stood up straight, listening to his orders, "Eldest Young Master, what's wrong?"

"Since she won't let me hold it, then you hold it. I'll take off my shoes." When he said that, a cold smile couldn't help but appear on his face.

Luo Qing Yun was too familiar with his expression, every time she wanted to take revenge on someone, she would laugh like this.

Chapter 95 - Face Cold Heart Heat

Her small heart trembled. Just as she opened her mouth and was about to refuse, A Tao's hands were already on her shoulders. "Second Young Madam, it's going to hurt a little now.

"I ..." Luo Qing Yun wanted to cry, but no tears came out. She knew that Su Chen Hao would not let her go so easily, so she closed her eyes and resigned herself to fate.

Her reckless expression made Su Chen Hao, who had originally planned to punish her with all his might, lose interest. Looking at the back of her feet, which was bubbling up, even though it wasn't on his body, he could feel the pain from her skin.

One big paw held her little foot, the other braced the soft flat leather shoe, pushing it slightly forward from her heel.

The two sides of her shoes rubbed against Luo Qing Yun's scalded skin, causing her to gasp in pain.

He'd thought that the pain would last for a long time, but he never expected that his shoes would be taken off so quickly.

Opening her eyes, she looked at Su Chen Hao, who was squatting in front of her, with some disbelief. He actually did not take the opportunity to punish her, and instead let her off so easily.

Standing up, he turned around and washed his hands at the sink. Without a word, he walked out the door.

At this time, A Tao hurriedly squatted down and applied the scalding ointment to her, and said: "Second Young Madam, are you feeling any better?"

Luo Qing Yun nodded, "I feel much better now, thank you."

"What are you thanking me for? This is what I should do." A Tao laughed, then said: "But, you can thank the young master, don't look at how cold he is, he's actually a good person, with a cold face and a warm heart."

"Is that so?" She really didn't think that Su Chen Hao was such a person.

"Yeah, but I think it won't be long before Eldest Young Master's temper changes." A Tao said.

"Why?" Luo Qing Yun could not help but ask curiously.

A Tao looked towards the door. Seeing that no one was coming, he covered her mouth and whispered into Luo Qing Yun's ear, "Because First Young Madam has entered. With First Young Master's playful personality, no matter how cold you are, Eldest Young Master would still be covered by her."

After saying that, she smiled warmly.

Yes, with Huo Xi Wen, he would naturally slowly become different from before.

Although she had only met Huo Xi Wen a few times, and did not interact much with him, she could feel that she was a lively, enthusiastic, and simple girl.

Adding on her good family background and education, only such a perfect person would fit Su Chen Hao's picky personality.

Thinking about it this way, she suddenly felt that it wasn't too bad that she lost to Huo Xi Wen.

This world had always been a reality, and she just didn't know it for herself.

They thought that if Su Chen Hao liked them, they would be able to vow to be together for the rest of their lives.

But from beginning to end, when did Su Chen Hao express the wish to live with her forever?

In the end, it was still because she was too arrogant, thinking that if she gave out her feelings, she would be able to reap the same amount of love.

Maybe Su Chen Hao had always wanted to raise her like a pet. When he was in a good mood, he would go and tease her.

His train of thoughts involuntarily floated further away, only until A Tao called out to her continuously did she finally regain her senses with a blank look on her face: "What's wrong?"

"Second Young Madam, what are you thinking? Let me help you out. Second Wife is still worried. " A Tao said, then pulled her up from the chair and walked out.

As one of her feet was scalded and swollen, it was impossible for her to wear shoes, plus she had applied medicine on it, so she could only expose it. She placed her hand on A Tao's shoulder and relied on her other foot to jump out of the bathroom.

Just as the two of them walked into the guest hall, Su Qi Ze happened to be coming down from the second floor. Seeing that, his expression changed, and immediately went up and asked: "What happened? "What's going on?"

"It's nothing. I accidentally got scalded by boiling water. Don't worry." Luo Qing Yun said with a smile, pretending to be relaxed.

"He's already this hot, and he still says he's fine?" Su Qi Ze's eyes were filled with pain, without saying a word, he carried her and walked out.

At this time, He Fen also came out from the hall, seeing the situation, she immediately called out to him, "Qi Ze, where are you going?"

"Qingyun was scalded, I'll take her to the hospital to have a look." Su Qi Ze replied without turning his head back.

He Fen realized that Luo Qing Yun's fever was probably worse than she thought, so she turned to A Tao and asked: "Didn't I tell you to apply the medicine on her? Why are you still going to the hospital? "

A Tao lowered her head and carefully replied: "The Second Young Madam is burning quite badly, there are quite a few blisters."

"What?" Hearing this, He Fen's heart started to feel uneasy, but at this time, Su Qi Ze was already far away. Furthermore, he was the one who caused Luo Qing Yun to be scalded, so he was afraid that Su Qi Ze would blame him in her heart, hence he did not chase after him.

Once Su Qi Ze left, he did not return to the big house anymore.

During lunch time, Bai Ci Hui came to the dining hall. Seeing that Su Qi Ze and Luo Qing Yun were not there, she became a little curious.

Sisters of Lotus whispered the whole story into her ear. After she finished listening, she couldn't help but laugh, "I was wondering why I didn't see Qi Ze and his wife. So it was because something like this happened."

Her beautiful eyes turned, and her gaze landed on He Fen whose face was not well, "Speaking of which, although my daughter-in-law is born in a poor family, she has already entered the gates of our Su Family. Even if her life is lower, it's still worth it, and furthermore, she is currently carrying a child, so sister-in-law isn't worried that something will happen to her grandson. "I'm not going to follow them and take a look."

"It's just some scalding wounds, what can it be? Rather than caring for my wife, it would be better for my sister-in-law to care more for Chen Hao and Xi Wen. If I can quickly get them to conceive, then we can give birth to two fat great-grandchildren at once, and have a happy ending at home. That would truly be filial. " He Fen retorted.

Su Chen Hao sat on the table, and his expression gradually became cold. In the end, he heavily placed the cup in his hand on the table, and looked coldly at the two people in front of him. "Grandfather is about to come down, are you two going to keep bickering like this?"

"Chen Hao, it's not that I want to argue with your mother, it's that she ..." He Fen felt wronged, the battle just now was clearly instigated by Bai Ci Hui.

"If Aunt feels wronged, it's best if you don't come to this mansion anymore." Su Chen Hao interrupted her words without the slightest trace of politeness.

"You ..." He Fen did not think that he would actually say that, and her face immediately contorted. She could only turn her head to look at her husband, wanting him to say a few words in her stead.

Su Wan Bo sipped on his tea, but didn't seem to be angry at all. He only shook his head and said, "We didn't want to come often, but father is currently living with you guys in the big house, I'm really worried for him. Chen Hao, you yourself aren't even living here, and your grandfather is also not in a good condition. What if something bad happens to your grandfather? Do you expect your mother, who knows every day that the door is closed, to complain? "

"What did you say?" Who dares to complain? " Hearing that, Bai Ci Hui was immediately enraged.

"Enough! "Since second uncle is here to see grandpa, then you have already seen him, I will not keep second uncle here for a meal." Su Chen Hao interrupted their conversation and stood up, then turned to look at Butler Hu: "Hu Bo, send Second Uncle and Second Aunt off."

"Stinking brat, you chased me away?" At this time, Su Wan Bo finally could not hold it in and turned hostile.

"It's just that I don't want to waste second uncle's precious time, so I'm here to socialize with us."

"Alright, you brat, I'll count you in as vicious!" I really can't eat anymore! " Su Wan Bo knew that in the current Su Family Mansion, including the entire Royal Group, everything was decided by Su Chen Hao. Directly fighting against him would not benefit him in any way.

Although he was being chased out and lost face, if he were to force himself to stay, and Su Chen Hao made a move, the situation would become even worse.

He glared fiercely at Su Chen Hao, then pulled his wife He Fen who was by his side, and the two of them rushed out of the dining hall angrily, leaving the mansion.

Huo Xi Wen witnessed this farce and, seeing Su Chen Hao's ashen face, knew that he was in a terrible mood. She reached out to tug on's sleeves and comforted him softly: "Big Brother Chen, why do you have to pick on Second Uncle and the rest? Wait till Grandpa comes down and sees that they're all gone, how can we explain that? "

"Say they went to the hospital." Su Chen Hao lost his appetite, threw down those words, and turned to go upstairs.

Huo Xi Wen watched him leave, and then looked at Grandma who was silently sitting at the side, and her mood became gloomy.

Originally, he thought that his relationship with the Huo Family was bad enough and complicated enough, but he never expected that after marrying into the Su Family, this side would also be a mess.

This was really something difficult to remember!

Su Qi Ze brought Luo Qing Yun back from the hospital and discovered that her parents had already returned home. Inwardly, she couldn't help but be suspicious.

"Dad, Mom, why did you guys come back as well? You didn't stay at the mansion to have lunch with your grandfather? "

He Fen became extremely angry whenever she mentioned the mansion, and could not help but complain: "What are you eating? In the future, don't run to the mansion if you have nothing better to do. Don't bring a child over for your grandfather to see when you have a child. Look how much he has spoiled Su Chen Hao, she has no respect for her elders. "

"What's wrong? Have you quarreled with them again? " When Su Qi Ze heard this, he could roughly guess what happened.

Su Wan Bo spoke up at this moment: "Don't listen to your mother, what does she know?"

"I don't understand? I just don't understand why your father would be so biased, even if you gave him a big house, it's fine. But now, even the company only has Su Chen Hao to cover the sky. Where's our Qi Ze? He had worked hard to set up his own company, but had his father helped him in any way when he went public? Could it be that only Su Chen Hao is his grandson, while us Qi Ze are not? And back then, didn't Su Chen Hao also have a congenital heart disease? "It's not easy to get a heart, but ..." He Fen felt extremely wronged when he talked about how his own family had been treated unfairly all these years.

But when she talked about the last thing, Su Qi Ze suddenly opened his mouth and interrupted her loudly, "Mom!"

He Fen was startled by his shout, and stared at him with wide eyes: "What are you doing?"
